S. Dakota Prisoners Riot, Hold 3 Guards

SIOUX FALLS, S.D. (AP) — One guard hostage was released and three others were still held Monday night by prisoners rioting behind the massive stone walls of the South Dakota State Penitentiary.

The prisoners said they were holding the three guards until they get what they want—such things as better food and additional toilet facilities.

The guard who was released unharmed was Leonard Skurda. For some time during the riot the prisoners insisted they did not have Skurda and had not seen him.

Six convicts were taken to hospital. Two suffered heart attacks, another received a broken nose in the outbreak, and another was cut by flying glass.

Warden G. Norton Jameson was out of the city when the rioting began. Prisoners demanded to see him and he returned by plane and quickly held talks with the inmates.

The rioting lessened about the time the warden arrived. The inmates asked to talk to reporters. News men went to the gate of the cell block and one prisoner told them the guards will not be hurt.

"We are just holding them until we get what we want," the convict said.

Various prisoners cited grievances. Some complained that they didn't like the food they had been served recently. Others mentioned lack of toilet facilities, mainly in the quarantine room.

The inmates also complained that one prisoner had been in solitary confinement for two years and they asked that he be released.

One or two said Fred Nichols, Democratic candidate for state attorney general, was right when he recently charged that inmates had been beaten at the prison. Gov. Sigvard Anderson, Republican, has denied the allegation and earlier today invited Nichols to "name the guards who did the beating."

Warden Jameson told a reporter, "All this (the riot) was a natural reaction to all the political talk in the papers."

The prisoners, in their talk to newsmen, insisted they did not know where Skurda was. They said they had not seen him during the riot.

Guards the prisoners admitted holding were George Reed, E. M. Lamberton and Robert Young. Deputy Warden W. T. Knudsen said the rioting followed a dining hall disturbance in which inmates "all of a sudden started to throw things and holler."

"It was pretty well organized," he added. "It started almost simultaneously in all parts of the big dining room. Cups and tin plates were flying through the air from all directions."

"It got pretty dangerous—even for the inmates."

The convicts were herded back to hallways of their cell blocks, where they continued breaking windows.

FTC Charges Coffee Exchange Promoted Increase In Prices

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Trade Commission charged Monday that "unlawful restraint of trade" by the New York Coffee & Sugar Exchange "contributed to and promoted" a sharp boost in coffee prices early this year.

The FTC made the charge in a complaint announced against the Coffee Exchange. It said the complaint was based on an FTC study of the coffee trade, inspired by a rise in average retail coffee prices from 91 cents a pound in December, 1953 to $1.18 a pound in April, 1954.

In its report of its study, made public in July, FTC said the coffee price spiral "cannot be explained in terms of competitive laws of supply and demand." One explanation that had been offered was that there had been a short crop in Brazil.

Speaking for the exchange, its vice president, Leon Israel, said: "We deny the latest charges of the FTC as we have denied other unfair and inaccurate charges against the exchange in the past. Furthermore we welcome any fair and impartial investigation of the trading practices on the exchange."

The FTC action is, of course, not entirely unexpected in view of the unfair and inaccurate report on coffee trading issued by the FTC last spring.

Israel said he hoped a Senate coffee investigation, which opens Tuesday, and other inquiries "will go into this matter thoroughly so that we can refute the FTC allegations in detail."

The complaint named the coffee exchange, four of its officers, eight of its member firms and the New York Coffee & Sugar Clearing Assn. Inc. The FTC said the Coffee Exchange includes about 300 member firms, and about 100 of them make up the membership of the clearing association.

FTC gave the exchange and others named 20 days to reply, and set Dec. 14 as a tentative hearing date, in New York City.

Under the trade laws, if the commission rules after the hearings that the complaint was justified, the FTC would order the exchange and others named to discontinue practices alleged in the complaint.

If such an order were not obeyed, fines of $5,000 for each violation, with each day of operation subject to being construed as a separate violation.

Stuart Hutchison, chief of civil defense agency, urged declaration by the governor a state of emergency so that Joliet could borrow pumps from a Federal Civil Defense depot at Hammond, Ind., Downey said.

The governor's office appealed to President Eisenhower in Denver for dispatch of a Civil Defense Agency team to observe conditions in the northern part of the state, and was told that Arnold Neishin, a CDA sanitary engineer at Battle Creek, Mich., was on his way to Chicago.

DETROIT (AP) — Defense Secretary Wilson caused a storm here Monday when he said at a news conference that while he had "a lot of sympathy" for the jobless in surplus labor areas he always "liked bird dogs better than kennel dogs."

CIO and United Auto Workers President Walter Reuther demanded in a telegram to President Eisenhower that Wilson "publicly retract" the statement or "be asked to retire from public life."

The labor leader's ire was aroused by Wilson's comment to reporters' questions about unemployment. The cabinet official said with a grin:

"The bird dogs like to get out and hunt around for their food, but the kennel dogs just sit on their haunches and yelp."

Another comment that prompted Reuther to send a five-page blistering telegram to the President was Wilson's statement that he expected employment in Michigan to "balance itself out" by Christmas as new models get into production "and maybe a few workers go back south when it gets a little cold."

"Until I saw this story (a published report of Wilson's interview), I had believed we were decades past the day when allegedly civilized men thought such things, let alone expressed them aloud and in public," Reuther said. "I regret that I was so sadly mistaken in estimating the degree to which big business had acquired at least the rudiments of a social conscience."

TOSS BOMB INTO RED MEET

PARIS (AP) — An explosive tossed into a neighborhood Communist party meeting here Monday night injured four persons in a crowd of 40.

Three men in a small French car drove up to the party office on the Rue d'Alsace. One man got out and tossed the explosive through a window into the meeting room and then fled in the waiting car.

Justice Jackson Eulogized By Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court Monday eulogized Justice Robert H. Jackson as an "able lawyer, statesman and jurist" whose death "leaves a great void on this court."

Then the court adjourned out of respect to Jackson's memory until noon Thursday.

On that day the court will announce decisions on a long list of appeals — business which, except for Jackson's death Saturday of a heart attack, would have been done Monday.

Chief Justice Warren and the seven associate justices looked solemn as they took their places on the high bench promptly at noon Jackson's chair — the second from the left looking toward the bench — was draped in black. So was the bench immediately in front of his chair.

The chief justice, speaking for the court, said "We are sad indeed" over Jackson's death.

"He passed away last Saturday, suddenly, but by the grace of God without suffering," Warren said. "For this we are grateful, because he lived and died as was his great desire — active and useful to the end."

The court, Warren said, will greatly miss Jackson's "wise counsel, his clarity of expression and his genial companionship."

Flood Threatened Ottawa Requests State Troops

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Gov. Stratton's office said Monday Mayor Philip Bailey of Ottawa requested National Guard troops for the flood threatened Illinois River city.

William W. Downey, Stratton's administrative assistant, said Bailey informed him the river had overflowed its banks and residents had been evacuated from a three block area.

The guard troops were asked because "we're afraid of plunder," Downey quoted Bailey.

Downey said a detail of state police had been dispatched to appraise the situation and report to the governor's office. Stratton was in Peoria for a speech to the Illinois State Federation of Labor convention.

Downey said he also received a report that Sterling, on the Rock River, had 10 inches of water, and that sewers were backing up in Joliet because of flood conditions.

Stuart Hutchison, chief of civil defense agency, urged declaration by the governor a state of emergency so that Joliet could borrow pumps from a Federal Civil Defense depot at Hammond, Ind., Downey said.

The governor's office appealed to President Eisenhower in Denver for dispatch of a Civil Defense Agency team to observe conditions in the northern part of the state, and was told that Arnold Neishin, a CDA sanitary engineer at Battle Creek, Mich., was on his way to Chicago.

Vishinsky Makes Concessions On Ban Of Bombs

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Russia's Andrei Y. Vishinsky gave apparent ground Monday on the long-standing Russian demand for an immediate ban on atomic and hydrogen bombs. At the same time he called on the West to match Moscow's concessions with similar moves.

In a moderately worded speech to the U.N. Political Committee, Vishinsky made these key points on disarmament in answer to a barrage of questions from Selwyn Lloyd of Britain, and Jules Moch of France.

1. Instead of beginning a disarmament program with the immediate and unconditional banning of atomic and hydrogen bombs, as Moscow has demanded, Russia is now ready to start the program with reduction of conventional armaments and armed forces of the countries of the world.

2. The prohibition of atomic and hydrogen bombs can come in a second phase of a comprehensive disarmament program after the conventional strength has been cut and a control organ has been set up. The ban on the bombs and the start of the work on the control organ can be simultaneous but this simultaneous period may conceivably cover a period up to six months.

3. The control organ, however, must not have the authority to close a plant in any country. The Security Council, under the U.N. Charter has the sole power to take such steps and the U.N. cannot delegate powers of the charter to a control organ.

Meek, Douglas Step Up Efforts To Win Election

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

With three weeks left before the Nov. 2 election, the two stars of Illinois' top race for the U. S. Senate, plugged their sales talks before downstate voters Monday.

Joseph T. Meek, the GOP challenger, visiting Lincoln, Paxton, Bloomington and Pontiac, said accomplishments of the Eisenhower administration "square with" what he stands for.

Sen. Paul H. Douglas wound up a day's caravanning by telling a Canton rally that Meek "like Rip Van Winkle, has been asleep for 20 years."

Democrat Douglas said Meek "has awakened to discover that such things as labor unions, old-age pensions, farm price supports and social security are as basic a part of our government as the post office. But he's again 'em all'."

Meek told his Pontiac audience he is "first and foremost" for "keeping American boys off foreign battlefields."

Meek said he advocates "limiting our debt," "slashing handouts," "getting government out of competition with private enterprise," removing "the straight-jacket of economic controls on private business," "continued tax reform," and "busting communism," among other things.

He said he would throw out of government "holdovers who adhere to socialist principles," he believes in "equal rights for every American citizen," is "for collective bargaining" and "considerate treatment of Americans who honestly need help."

"I am for encouraging thrift," Meek said.

Mendes-France Virtually Sure Of Confidence Vote

PARIS (AP) — French Socialists Monday night virtually assured Premier Pierre Mendes-France a vote of confidence Tuesday on his policies in hammering out the London agreements for rearming West Germany.

Representatives of Socialist federations from all over the country met here as to the party's National Executive and agreed almost unanimously to authorize their deputies in the French National Assembly to support the Premier. Four delegates abstained.

Mendes-France has staked the life of his government on a vote of confidence Tuesday in connection with the nine-nation London accords he helped to forge.

Such a vote will give him the green light to negotiate a treaty which would bring a free, rearmament West Germany into Europe's defense setup.

A resolution adopted by the Socialists pointed out, however, that Tuesday's vote does not commit the Socialists to support the London accords once they are drafted into treaty form and brought before the Assembly for final ratification. Before such a vote, a special party national convention must be called to determine the Socialist attitude.

CHICAGO SUBURBS FLOOD—Rescue worker, right, helps isolated flood victims from home at suburban Alsip, Ill., near Chicago. Two-day rains dropped seven inches in Chicago's outlying areas. Volunteer firemen, Coast Guard, and Red Cross are aiding in evacuation, feeding and housing of victims.

Report 6,926 Ousted Under Security Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration reported Monday that 6,926 persons have been struck from federal payroll under its security program. Democratic leaders immediately challenged the report as a "hoax."

The figures, released by the U.S. Civil Service Commission in the midst of a red hot political debate over security risks, showed that 1,743 of the persons who were fired or resigned were suspected of subversive activities or associations. This added fuel to the flames.

"A desperate new effort to fool the public," said Democratic National Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell.

"Merely a continuation of the administration's 'numbers racket,'" said Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC). Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall said: "This administration is cleaning up instead of covering up."

Vice President Nixon, campaigning for the reelection of a Republican Congress, has claimed that the administration has removed Communists, fellow travelers and security risks from government service "not by the hundreds, but by the thousands."

Democrats have refused to accept his figure, and Mitchell has gone so far as to accuse Nixon of telling lies.

Monday's civil service tabulation showed that from the time President Eisenhower's security program went into effect May 28, 1953, until last June 30, 2,611 government workers were fired outright and 4,315 resigned "before determination was completed in cases where the file was known to contain unfavorable information."

There was no breakdown on how many persons in the "subversion" class were fired or how many left government service before their cases were adjudicated.

In all these cases, however, the Civil Service Commission said the files contained "information indicating in varying degrees subversive activities, subversive associations, or membership in subversive organizations."

At the Summer White House in Denver, Asst. Presidential Press Secretary Murray Snyder described the commission's figures as "just a routine report."

But Hall seized upon them as a vindication of the vice president, which he said left Mitchell "holding the bag."

Mitchell, Hall said in a statement, is "exposed as having perpetrated the all-time high in political chicanery."

CONTINENTAL BUS LINE STRIKE SETTLED

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Service on the central division of Continental Bus Lines will be returned to normal "as quickly as possible" following settlement of a four-months strike, G. L. Carpenter, the company's division general manager, said Monday.

Carpenter said local lines in the Tulsa and Muskogee areas in Oklahoma were restored to service Monday. Settlement of the strike was announced Sunday.

But service resumption between Tulsa and Muskogee, Kansas, by lines in Missouri, Kansas, Colorado, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Illinois and Nebraska is scheduled for Wednesday, he said, with gradual return to normal schedules.

Estimate $15 Million Damage

CHICAGO (AP) — Clearing skies Monday night promised relief to Chicago, staggered by its worst rainstorm in 69 years.

A weekend downpour of more than half a foot caused damage estimated at 15 million dollars in the city and one of its industrial suburbs, and hundreds of thousands more elsewhere in northern Illinois and Indiana.

The Weather Bureau predicted showers Tuesday but said the deluge which swamped Chicago, flooded suburbs and spilled rivers over their banks appeared ended.

The storm brought Chicago's total rainfall for the first 11 days of October to 11.56 inches—a new all time record for rainfall in any one month period. The first 24 hours of the deluge was the wettest day in the city since 1885.

Total rain from 6 p.m. Saturday until the sky cleared Monday night was 6.72 inches in Chicago and more than 9.75 inches in Blue Island, a southern suburb.

As the three-day rain approached the 7-inch mark its crippling effects spread.

Huge industrial plants curtailed or suspended operations and by nightfall the number of idle had risen to an estimated 25,000.

More than 700 persons, most of them in the suburbs, fled flooded homes in the Chicago area.

Hundreds of others were routed in a broader flood area that fanned out from Chicago 80 miles to the west and about the same distance to the east in Illinois and Indiana.

But only three deaths caused directly by the flood were reported. The victims were Patrick McNichols, 51, of Chicago and Leroy Folles, 70, of De Kalb, Ill., who were found dead in flooded basements, and Chester Kostro, 41, of Chicago, electrocuted while operating an electric drill in a partially flooded basement.

Transportation was scrambled in Chicago. But late in the day tracks leading into the Union Station from the south were cleared enough to permit the Burlington and Pennsylvania railroads to move some trains in and out of the terminal.

The sun appeared briefly and faintly in the western sky at 5 p.m. CST but more rain was forecast.

The rain held off during the morning, and thousands joined in the tremendous mop-up task.

But in the afternoon the rain resumed. It was chilling.

The U. S. Weather Bureau, which failed to forecast the crippling rain of Saturday and Sunday, said there would be showers and thunder showers Monday afternoon and night, and again Tuesday afternoon. Showers also are likely for

Indict Rockdale Mayor On Charges Of Election Fraud

JOLIET, Ill. (AP) — Mayor John G. Uremovic of Rockdale, Democrat Party chairman of Will County, was indicted Monday on 96 counts of alleged election fraud in connection with the April 13 primary.

The 297-page indictment returned by the September grand jury before Circuit Judge John V. Bartley accused Uremovic of altering the vote counts of Democratic candidates while serving as an election judge in the 29th precinct at Rockdale.

His bond was fixed at $5,000.

The indictment charged he raised the number of votes in his precinct for candidates of a faction he favored from 30 to 50, and reduced the votes cast for members of another faction by 15 to 40.

Public Cancer Group Advises Against Smoking Cigarettes

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — The Public Health Cancer Assn. voted Monday to advise the public to stop smoking cigarettes in order to reduce the incidence of lung cancer.

The resolution said there was now sufficient evidence of a relationship between smoking cigarettes and lung cancer.

It urged American youth to "ponder well the question of whether the risk involved (in cigarette smoking) is worth the pleasure gained."

The resolution, offered by Dr. Morton L. Levin, assistant New York State health commissioner, was passed by a 13-3 vote.

Dr. Levin said about two dozen of those present did not vote, but many of them were not members of the association.

Dr. Levin said that, to his knowledge, the association was the first public cancer group to specifically advise the public against smoking cigarettes.

The association is composed principally of public health officers and professional persons working to combat cancer.

The resolution followed a panel discussion by six physicians and statisticians, who said they thought cigarettes were a "major factor in causing lung cancer."

They agreed that they would advise people to stop smoking "as the most important practical step they can take" to reduce deaths from lung cancer.

Their viewpoint goes a bit beyond previous studies and statements, which have mentioned only an association or relationship rather than causal effect between smoking and lung cancer. Other medical and scientific researchers have said that they doubted cigarettes were to blame, or that the evidence was not conclusive.

The six men who reported their general agreement in a panel discussion in connection with the American Public Health Assn.'s 82nd annual meeting were: Dr. Levin; E. Cuyler Hammond, M.D., American Cancer Society statistician; Herbert L. Lombard, M.D., Massachusetts Department of Public Health; Matthew H. Griewald, M.D., Connecticut Health Department; William M. Haenzel, biometrician, National Cancer Institute; and Leonard S. Sniegireff, M.D., Harvard University School of Public Health.

Dr. Levin said that the evidence from many types of studies "leads undoubtedly to the conclusion that a major factor in lung cancer is cigarettes."

"Cigarette smoking is not the only cause," and development of lung cancer may require other causative factors as well, he said.

Relics Of 'Great Navigator' Take The Spotlight Today

Columbus Day is an important date in the Republic of Santo Domingo. Each year, the casket containing the Great Navigator's "true remains" is brought out from its elaborate marble tomb in the Cathedral of Santo Domingo, Ciudad Trujillo, and opened in impressive ceremonies. Leading the observance are President Rafael Trujillo, the Archbishop and the highest dignitaries of the government. The remains of Columbus, a collection of bones, were found deep in the ground under the high altar on Sept. 10, 1877. They had been hidden for centuries before from marauding English pirates who were then the scourge of the Spanish Main. The sarcophagus containing the relics reposes in a magnificent marble tomb, designed by the Catalan sculptor Carbonell and dedicated on the 400th anniversary of the discovery of the New World.

THE NOBLEST PROFESSION

By act of Congress and Presidential proclamation, this week, October 11th to 16th, is National Nurse Week.

There is perhaps no professional group more respected and more loved in the public mind. The Woman in White, the Angel of Mercy, the Hard-boiled Harpy! Who is she? If you'll pause a moment to remember, no doubt you will know her.

She is the hospital nurse who was so good to Junior when he had his tonsils out. She took care of you, too, when you had your appendectomy. She is the school nurse who gave Sally and Mary Ann their immunization shots. She is the nurse in the factory who gave first aid to Sam when he injured his arm. She is the public health nurse who gave instructions in prenatal care to your daughter-in-law or who came to change the dressings for grandma. She is the nurse on the frontlines wherever there is war or disaster. She is the nurse you read about in the newspaper, and the nurse you'll never read about although you know her well.

She is patient, kind, clear - thinking, courageous, methodical, skilled. She is a worker trained in the techniques of restoring and maintaining health—of sanitation, nutrition, psychology, and a whole battery of modern medical routines, as well as bedside care. She is an essential element in any program fostering the health and welfare of the American people.

Let us honor the nurse, then, not as the cardboard figure of recruiting posters, but as one of us who is trained to work for health in our community. Let us remember the nurses' daily contributions to the health and welfare of our own families and the families of our neighbors. Let us join with them to renew and extend the ranks of nursing through bringing more young people into their profession, to support both the aims and the costs of nursing services and nursing education in our own community, to make good nursing care available to all of the people all of the time.

NEW YORK (AP)—Everybody complains about the red tape in government.

But we're getting to the point where our entire civilization seems to be held together by one type of tape or another.

In slightly more than a quarter of a century tape making has undergone a tremendous revolution, become a 200-million-dollar-a-year business. Some 300 kinds of tape are now made for household, shop and industrial use—not including the legendary red tape of bureaucracy.

"Some 150 kinds have been developed since the end of the second World War," said W. E. Zimmermann, an executive of the Minnesota Mining & Manufacturing Co., which last year turned out 212 million miles of tape. This is enough to reach five times to the moon and back, although, of course, this hasn't been done yet.

"But whether he realizes it or not," said Zimmermann, "the average man now uses some kind of specialized tape from the cradle to the grave."

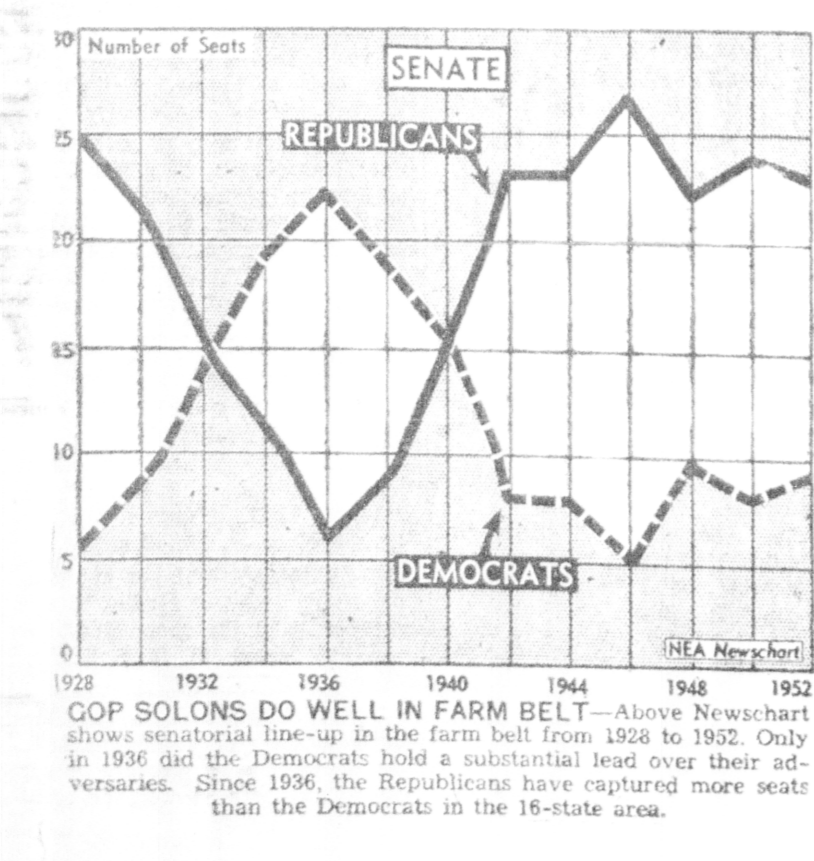

He isn't kidding. Before a mother-to-be enters a delivery room, the nurses use autocleaning tape to mark bundles of towels and dressings.

The hospital employs acetate film tape to cover and preserve the baby's footprints on his birth record. There is shoe tape in his first footgear.

An acetate writing tape helps blind his school writing pads. Tape is used to seal the box of candy he buys his first girl.

The rest of his life he is surrounded by multiplying types of tape. They are in his home, his car, his television set, his golf clubs. The insurance agent even used a mending tape to attach riders to his policies.

When he dies, he is buried in clothes made with the help of textile tapes. The florist uses cellophane tape to fashion his funeral sprays and bouquets. The hearse in which he makes his last journey has electrical tape around its wiring. And when the tombstone maker gets around to making his headstone he uses a rubberized stenciled tape as he sandblasts the name and epitaph.

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—History and their own slim majority in both houses are enough to make the Republicans worry about the outcome of the Nov. 2 congressional elections. Worried they seem to be.

A squad of Republican leaders descended on President Eisenhower's vacation spot last week for a conference. Afterwards it was learned Eisenhower will make more speeches than he seems to have intended.

Thirty-seven Senate seats and 432 House seats are at stake in November. Maine has already elected a Republican senator and three House members.

Going into these elections for a new Congress, the Republicans in the present Congress have a margin of only two Senate seats over the Democrats and a margin of only three in the House.

In a presidential election year, when a party's candidate wins the White House through his own wide popularity, a number of his party's candidates for Congress ride in on his coattails.

Eisenhower's sensational victory in 1952 has been credited with sweeping his Republicans into control of House and Senate although even at that they barely made it in both places.

But since this is a mid-term election and Eisenhower's name won't be on the ballot, they'll have to depend on themselves, their party's record and such help as the party and Eisenhower can give them.

Knowing their edge in both houses is paper-thin, they know also that traditionally in a mid-term election the party controlling Congress loses strength.

They can't afford to lose much this year without losing control of Congress.

Nine times in the 16 mid-term elections since 1914 the party with a majority in the House lost some seats. The exception was 1934 when the Democrats picked up strength. President Roosevelt, elected two years before, had just begun to get his New Deal rolling.

Three times in those 16 mid-term elections the party controlling the House lost control of it. The Democrats lost it in 1918 (Democratic President Wilson was in the White House), the Republicans lost it in 1930 (in the last half of Republican President Hoover's term) and the Democrats lost it again in 1946 when Democrat Harry Truman was president.

Eight times in those 16 mid-term elections the party controlling the Senate lost seats and twice lost control of the Senate altogether: in 1918 and 1946.

Eisenhower long ago, it seems, made up his mind that while he would make a few speeches this year to help his Republicans he would do it in a general way, nationally.

Vice President Nixon applauded this approach to the election problem but Joseph Martin, speaker of the House, has advocated that the President make some individual pitches for individual candidates.

By limiting himself to a general plea to the voters to elect a Republican Congress, Eisenhower can avoid going into the districts or states to plug for individuals.

If he did it for one, he'd have to do it for many. And if he skipped a state, the Democrats there no doubt would say he deliberately skipped because he didn't think much of the candidate.

If he went into a state where the Republican candidate was subsequently defeated, the Democrats could interpret that as a repudiation of Eisenhower himself.

Eisenhower faces the chance of that same interpretation by the Democrats nationally if, after he repeatedly asks the voters to return a Republican Congress, the Democrats win.

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Government officials are still having trouble remembering that headquarters for the Federal Civil Defense Agency has moved to Michigan. A White House aide dated ECDA's number the other day, got the operator and asked for the extension of the man he wanted.

"I'd like to speak to Mr. Hansen," said the White House man. "He's not in this city."

"Where is he then?" asked the White House voice.

"In Washington."

"Well, where are you?"

"In Battle Creek, where do you think?"

The telephone tie-line between Washington and Battle Creek had gotten crossed. Mr. Hansen had been left behind in the Washington office.

The Air Force and General Electric have come up with a new, cheap way of getting jet planes off the ground fast on short runways. Old way was rockets which were very expensive. The new system involves a tank of alcohol and a water hidden in the wing. When the takeoff boost is needed the alcohol mixture is injected directly into the combustion chamber of the jet engine.

AFGE engineers also have a brand-new aircraft cannon just about perfected which shoots 20-mm shells at an "unbelievably" fast rate. It's supposed to make obsolete even the new M-39 cannon which scared the pants off MIG pilots at the end of the fighting in Korea.

A Group of Washington cab drivers in a bull session on the stand in front of the Mayflower Hotel the other day were rating conventions which had been in town the past year. Here's what they decided:

COLLEGIATE GRAND RAPIDS

MICH. (AP)—Here's a new gimmick for college students looking for an after-school job and some extra cash. City Commissioner Stanley J. Davis says he's drawn up a plan which would authorize students at the city's two colleges to ticket cars parked overtime at parking meters. Davis said the plan would release members of the police force for more important duties.

MANILA (AP)—Ever since President Ramon Magasaysay has been in office the Philippine people have taken him up on his invitation to come in and talk over their problems.

Through his open office door have swarmed more than 250 callers a day. Some days there has been little time for affairs of state.

So now he has a new schedule. No callers before 9 a.m. Senators, representatives and governors, who bring the biggest delegations, are limited to the mornings of Monday and Tuesday.

Delegations are limited to eight persons—and each will get just 10 minutes of his time.

It was widely reported in England that the U. S. Army was turning over some of its new guided missiles like the Honest John and WAC Corporal to the British Army and Marine officers. The new code made for incorporation into its ground force units.

The Pentagon denies this report. It's reported that the U. S. Army doesn't have a big enough stock pile for its own purposes.

Friends of Harriman see him having lunch at his club and inquires, "How are you, Averell?" "Feel like a million," Averell answers.

"That's too bad," says friend. "What's wrong?"

For Years, Now, the Atomic Energy Commission has been denying that its tests have anything to do with freak weather. But a lot of people still wonder about it. In fact the neighbors of AEC Chairman Lewis L. Strauss in nearby Culpeper, County, Va., which has suffered a severe drought this past summer, are among those persons unconvinced by the AEC denials.

"My neighbors in Culpeper, where our streams and wells are dried up, look at me suspiciously these days. But when they say anything about it I point out that my well are dry, too."

He also says:

"I am advised that in an ordinary small thunderstorm there is much more energy released than in a quite large bomb, and that in a hurricane or earthquake, the amounts of energy released are far beyond anything involved in an atomic thermonuclear explosion."

The Mature Parent Child Psychology Problem Is Our Dependence on It

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

A young mother I know recently sought professional help with what she believed was a psychological problem. Directed to an expert not much older than herself, she said, "I often have to force myself to do child rearing routines that bore me."

So scared was the expert by her use of the word "force" that she recommended the lengthy treatment of psychoanalysis.

When this advice was reported to me, I held my tongue. For my young friend like other millions among us, reverses psychological opinion as I reverse God.

So I could not say, "My dear, what you've heard is a human opinion. All that's happened is that you've talked to a girl who thinks self-discipline is a symptom of mental disease. I don't think so. What a pity you haven't an opinion of your own so that you can forget our opinions."

Several noted psychiatrists recently linked the teaching of child psychology to the increasing uncertainty among American parents and spreading emotional problems in children.

I don't agree. The child psychologists are not our problem. Our dependence upon them is.

A child psychologist's opinion of the way to treat Billy's tantrum cannot possibly make us uncertain if we have one of our own opinions to check against it. On the contrary, we can occasionally use his opinion by discarding what we don't want in it and retaining what we do.

But when we have no opinion of our own, we are indeed in peril. Because we must somehow fill our vacuum, we dare not examine his opinion.

We dare not remember that it represents the conclusion a man has drawn from his individual experience; we have to forget that his experience is subject to limitations and his conclusion to error.

Why do we depend on the psychologists? Isn't this the Age of the Fuehrer, the Commissar? What's new about our fear of what Thomas Mann calls "the I and its burdens?" Up to now, this century of ours has just varied the volume of its cry, "Show me the nearest exit from myself!"

Once a Man who loved us understood our distrust of the Self. So He told us what it was. He gave us the definition that has supported every self-reliant step yet taken by western man. He said, "The kingdom of God is within you."

Shingles Generally Results From a Virus Infection

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written For NEA Service

Each year several people who are either afflicted themselves with shingles, or have friends or relatives who are, write and ask for a discussion of this strange disease.

First, I should say, that shingles, or herpes zoster, as it is known medically, in all probability results from a virus infection.

For some peculiar reason this virus attacks the nerve roots of the nerves of feeling. It also, for some unknown reason, is almost always on the side of the body only.

The first sign of the disease is generally pain or a burning sensation on one side of the body. Tingling or other peculiar sensations are frequent. It is common around the chest, the hips, the abdomen and the face. Serious complications occur if it effects the Herpes may come with, or immediately after, acute infections like pneumonia or meningitis; it can come in epidemics or without any cause which can be identified. There seems to be some relation between herpes and chicken pox. Small epidemics of herpes have arisen at the same time as epidemics of chicken pox. Occasionally a person will develop chicken pox from contact with a patient with shingles. This is a most unusual relationship.

Many different kinds of treatment have been used for shingles. Soothing lotions or other preparations help a little. X-Rays have been used with little success. Antibiotics also may have some value. Anything which improves the general health is considered desirable. But there is no truly specific remedy.

In elderly people, or those who have been weakened by illness, poor diet or the like, herpes is often a particularly serious thing because it hangs on so long. When nothing else seems to work, cutting the nerve by surgery or other procedures on the nerves may have to be considered.

Older people with nerve pain following shingles deserve our deepest sympathy. Eventually, even in these discouraging situations, recovery is likely to come.

Serve Fresh Broccoli on Toast With Cheese Sauce

BY GAYNOR MADDON
NEA Food And Markets Editor

Late fall fresh vegetables bring color and eating pleasure into family menus. They are important nutritionally, also, cooked well—which always means not too long—everyone enjoys them.

Here are two dishes we often have for luncheon.

Fresh Broccoli on Toast with Cheese Sauce
(6 servings)

One bunch fresh broccoli, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon sugar, 1/2 cup boiling water in pan.

Wash broccoli. If stalks are large, split in half. Place in saucepan with remaining ingredients. Cover. Cook until tender when tested with a fork, 15 to 20 minutes. Lifting cover 3 to 4 times to permit gases to escape. In the meantime, make a cheese sauce with the following ingredients:

Cheese Sauce

Three tablespoons butter or margarine, 3 tablespoons flour, 1 1/2 cups milk, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper, 1/2 cup grated sharp Cheddar cheese, 1 1/2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice, 6 pieces toast, 12 slices crisp bacon.

Melt butter or margarine in saucepan. Blend in flour. Remove from heat and stir in milk and seasonings. Cook until medium thickness, stirring constantly. Add cheese and lemon juice. Place stalks of cooked broccoli on toast.

Fresh Snap Bean Casserole
(6 servings)

Two cups cooked fresh snap beans, cut in 2-inch pieces, 5 medium crisp bacon, chopped, 2 1/2 cup dumplings, cubed, 4 slices chopped onion, 1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper, 1/4 cup grated sharp Cheddar cheese.

Combine beans and cubed tomatoes. Fry bacon and remove from pan. Saute onion in bacon fat until just tender. Combine onions, beans, tomatoes, salt and pepper, and bacon. Place in greased casserole, top this with cheese and bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven until cheese is brown.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Tomato juice, cold sliced ham (or other meat), fresh broccoli on toast with cheese sauce, French fried potatoes, enriched bread, butter or margarine, raw carrot sticks, stewed fresh pears, cookies, coffee, tea, milk.

The New Social Menace: She's the Compliment Killer

When a group of women get together there is usually one Compliment Killer in the crowd.

The Compliment Killer can stab a compliment in the back with one quick jab.

Someone remarks on what a beautiful home Betty has and the Compliment Killer asks, "If you could spend money like she does, who couldn't have a beautiful home?"

If someone remarks on what wonders losing 10 pounds did for Elsie, the Compliment Killer points out that Elsie looks simply terrible since she lost weight. And goes on to describe her sunken cheeks and scrawny neck.

If another woman is spoken of with admiration because she is active in community affairs, the Compliment Killer is sure to feel sorry for her neglected husband and children.

THERE'S ONE IN EVERY CROWD

If a woman is praised as the kind of mother who welcomes the neighborhood gang and always seems to have fun with her own children, the Compliment Killer is sure to say, "But have you ever SEEN her house?"

You have to move something to have a place to sit down."

If a woman's looks receive a favorable comment, the compliment Killer either points out how much she spends on clothes, how she pampers herself, or if neither of those remarks seem to fit, says, "I suppose she is good looking—if you like the type."

There isn't a compliment the Compliment Killer can't handle. And the sad thing is that there is one in almost any group.

Cattle Again In Stronger Trend: Hogs, Lambs Off

NATIONAL STOCK YARDS, Ill.

Oct. 9—A stronger price trend again characterized the cattle market, while hogs dipped to a new low since early 1953, according to the Producers Live Stock Marketing Association. Lambs registered a moderate low decline.

Best fed cattle are holding a steady to stronger position and grassy steers are being curtailed much more than generally expected. However, some market observers believe that weakness may develop in grass cattle during the next 30 days.

High good and choice steers and heifers closed generally 50c higher; lower grades strong to 50c improved. Cows strengthened 50c, and bulls were about steady except for some weakness on canner and utility grades. Vealers and calves figured steady to $1.00 up.

Choice steers bulked for the week at $23.50 to $25.75 cwt., with several high choice and prime lots reaching $26 and $26.25. Veal calves sold upward to $24, paid sparingly for a few prime, stocker and feeder cattle, in short supply, sold on a firm basis.

Hog values eased further under liberal receipts and the late top of $19.25 was the lowest since February 2, 1953. The decline of $9.65 from the year's high of $28.90 amounts to 33 per cent. The hog top a year ago was $21.75.

The lower level of pork prices has greatly accelerated chain store and restaurant demand. Fresh pork was being featured in many markets as a week-end special.

Recovering a large part of a sharp initial break, lambs finished weak to 50c reduced, with the greatest loss on clipped offerings. A top of $20 was received for a small sprinkling of prime woolskins late, while best clipped for the week was $19.50. Over 80 per cent of all lambs, both woolled and shorn pelts, comprised good and choice to prime grades from $18 to $19.50. Feeder lambs were mostly $15, a few $16.

NORTONVILLE

Women's Classes In Auto Care To Begin This Week

"Gas, Gaskets and Glamor" is the title of an interesting and unique course in automobile care and operation for women only, which will be held during a six weeks' period beginning Friday, Oct. 15, at the Enloe Motor Co., 923 South Main street.

Details of the classes were announced Monday by Miss M. L. Enloe, owner of the Enloe Motor Co. The course will be offered by the Alente division of the Stewart-Warner Corp. and is similar to a school which has just been closed in Cleveland with an enrollment of 300 women.

"In part, these classes will deal with the simplified ABC's of your car's mechanical systems," Miss Enloe explained. "The classes will show how you can help keep your car in top operating condition; how to develop good driving habits and prolong the car's life; how to trade in a car; how to buy a new or used car; how to 'winterize' and 'summerize' your car, plus many more subjects, all dealt with in an interesting and easy to understand fashion."

Miss Enloe said the rule is that all instructions will be in non-technical language in the woman's slant. There will be "how-to" demonstrations, films, instructions, automotive experts, and question and answer sessions to help women really become acquainted with their cars.

Classes will be held in the Enloe Motor Co. service department with the first session scheduled to start at 7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 15. All classes will start promptly at the same time each week for six consecutive weeks.

Women can register for the course by calling the Enloe Motor Co., Phone 1281.

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — When Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt decided on a new home they didn't go looking for a lot of advice. They are building it themselves — in spare time.

The project grew out of an addition Hunt made to his old home. It was so successful that he spent the next winter drawing plans for an entire new home. He thought it might take five years to build, but now hopes to make it in two since the Hunts are working on it at night to get more "spare time" for the project. In the day he works as maintenance engineer for the Bank of Virginia. Mrs. Hunt is an accountant for the city health department.

Five Managerial Changes Since Season Ended

NEW YORK (AP)—The elevation of Frank Pinky Higgins to succeed Lou Boudreau of the Boston Red Sox raised to five Monday the number of major league managerial changes since the end of the season.

Two other managers have uncertain status—they may or may not be back—while the other nine pilots can relax. Their jobs—for the moment, at least—seem secure enough.

Higgins, former major league infielder who has been directing the Red Sox farm system, is the only fresh face to turn up.

Charlie Dressen, who lost out at Brooklyn a year ago, and Marty Marion, former leader of the now defunct St. Louis Browns, return to post jobs after a year's absence.

Paul Richards and Bucky Harris simply shifted seats in this popular autumn game of musical chairs.

Dressen goes to Washington to replace Harris, who moves over to Detroit, where Fred Hutchinson resigned. Marion goes to the Chicago White Sox to succeed Richards, who took a job as general manager and field manager at Baltimore.

Eddie Joost of the Philadelphia Athletics may lose out if the proposed franchise shift is made at the meeting of American League directors at Chicago Tuesday.

Terry Moore is reported on the way out with the Philadelphia Phillies, probably to be replaced by Lefty O'Doul.

SPORTS TRAIL

NEW YORK (AP)—The old professor stood very straight. In fact, his Monday morning class of football coaches thought the starch he bent over and clapped a hand to old gear was slightly stiff. Suddenly his midsection.

Old professor—oooh, those ulcers. They're killing me.

Red Sanders, UCLA—Speaking of ulcers, professor, I picked up my first symptoms Saturday. Washington played great football. That Bobby Cox is the hardest guy to corner by rushing of any passer we've faced. I never called our team great or one of the country's best. The poll did that.

Jack Cherberg, Washington—My boys were sure long on grit and character. UCLA is terrific. What a line! It will take a good team having a good day to upset them.

Old professor—Mr. Murray, why that long face?

Bill Murray, Duke—We're disappointed and feel fed we had more than our share of bad breaks in the second half. Purdue's a great team, though, and that fullback Bill Murakowski is a fine runner.

Stu Holcomb, Purdue—We certainly would have liked one more touchdown or even one more point. We had a little letdown after beating Notre Dame, but we feel we were tied by one of the best in the country.

Old professor—Well spoken, Mr. Holcomb. I gather you would have liked to untie the tie. Mr. Williamson, what are you doing with that mirror?

Ivy Johnson, Wisconsin—Looking like that one with Rice makes me for grey hairs, professor. A game, much older. We were worried plenty about that Dick Moegele. The Owls were dead game all the day.

Jess Neely, Rice—You're right, Mr. Williamson, about such a game making you older. For our part, you had too much Alan Ameche and too many other good boys. But Moegele is quite an operator, even on defense.

Old professor—Mr. Elliot, is that you sobbing back there?

Ray Elliot, Illinois—No sir, we were just beaten by a big-fast team many mistakes but we wouldn't have had a chance against Ohio State anyway.

Football Briefs

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Coach Ray Eliot, seeking a solution to Illinois' weaknesses, Monday promoted two new players to the first team.

They are quarterback Bob Gonzaga and 272-pound Fred Wilmoth, sophomore tackle.

Gonzaga replaces sophomore Hies Sout who had become No. 1 quarterback last week. Wilmoth replaced Roger Wolf at left tackle.

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Rain forced Northwestern's gridgers indoors Monday where they watched moves of their 26-7 defeat by Minnesota and heard Coach Bob Voight exclaim: "We had plenty of shots at their runners but just plain missed them."

Voight said this week's practices will stress fundamentals, especially tackling.

South Bend, Ind. (AP)—Coach Terry Brennan kept his Notre Dame players who saw heavy duty in the Pittsburgh game out of contact work Monday but gave the first stringers a long review of blocking assignments in a dummy scrimmage drill.

Brennan indicated he was far from satisfied with the blocking against Pitt.

Junior halfback Paul Reynolds sustained the only serious injury in the Pitt game. Reynolds has a badly pulled leg muscle.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The Minnesota football team laid off the rough stuff Monday to nurse a few bruises and take a hard look at the offense Illinois will toss against the Gophers here Saturday.

Coach Murray Warmath showed his unbeaten team key Illinois plays on a blackboard, then had the freshmen run them against the varsity in a no-contact drill.

Ron Smith, first-string end who suffered a shoulder separation in Saturday's 26-7 victory over Northwestern, is unlikely to play against the Illinois Tom Juhl, a sophomore, moved into Smith's flank spot with the varsity Monday, with Phil McElroy, a senior, moving into Juhl's second-team berth.

University officials said about 1,500 seats, all on the track bleachers, remain available.

Orange Bowl Committee Votes To Extend Pact

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Orange Bowl committee voted Monday in favor of a three-year renewal of its contract with the Big Seven and Atlantic Coast Conferences to provide the football teams for its New Year's Day games.

Approval by the two conferences is believed certain.

The present two-year pact will expire after the game next Jan. 1. Last New Year's day, the pact produced the country's top bowl game between Maryland, the No. 1 team of the nation, and Oklahoma, the No. 4 team.

James L. Knight, Orange Bowl vice president, said the tieup with the two conferences was "the best possible deal we can make."

He said Orange Bowl revenue from television and radio contracts will increase under such a setup because advertising sponsors will pay more for "a known quantity" than they will if they have to buy game on speculation.

Schedule chairman Van C. Kussow said a meeting would be held with representatives of the two conferences, possibly here next Sunday, to work out final details of the contract.

Pinky Higgins Takes Over Red Sox Helm; Lou Boudreau Out

By BOB HOOBING

BOSTON (AP)—Frank Pinky Higgins, the quiet Texan who asked to start his managerial career at the bottom, Monday reached the top with his appointment as field boss of the Boston Red Sox.

General Manager Joe Cronin made the announcement at a press conference following long distance telephone conversations with Higgins and his predecessor, Lou Boudreau.

Boudreau's two year contract had another year to run and Cronin said the Red Sox "will meet the obligation" insofar as the second year is concerned.

As is customary, no figure was announced for the two year contract which is being given Higgins. Estimates ran as high as $65,000 for Boudreau's last year.

Higgins' elevation came less than 48 hours after his Louisville team, the Red Sox American Assn. farm club, won baseball's second biggest prize, the Little World Series, from Syracuse of the International League.

Cronin revealed the decision was made Sunday night in a phone discussion with the club owner Tom Yawkey.

"The move really culminated Sunday night," Cronin said, "because other clubs have shown so much interest in Higgins, we just had to do something."

Pinky signed with the Philadelphia Athletics in the summer of 1930 upon his graduation from the University of Texas to begin an active playing career as a third baseman spanning 17 years. After a season each in the Texas and Pacific Coast Leagues, Higgins played for Philadelphia from 1933 through 1936. Boston 1937-38, Detroit 1939 through 1945 and a final year with the pennant-winning Red Sox of 1946.

Higgins made a lasting impression on Yawkey in 1947 when he turned down an offer to manage Toronto, which then had a working agreement with Boston, in the International League.

"No Mr. Yawkey," Cronin quotes Higgins as saying at the time, "I want to start at the bottom."

Prep Gridder Has 16.6 Average, Another Scores 5 Times In Weekend Tilts

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—A five touchdown outburst by one player and some dazzling ground gaining achievements by several others topped individual exploits in weekend action on downstate Illinois prep football fields.

Cliff Strom, Alleman of Rock Island fullback, came up with one of the season's best scoring productions by counting five times in a 54-6 rout of Notre Dame of Quincy. The Quincy boys got an idea what was in store when halfback Lennis Peacott, Alleman, streaked 85 yards to score with the opening kickoff.

Bob Salata of Waukegan, Dick McDade of Urbana and Carroll Sanders of Benton piled up some fancy yardage in sparking their teams to decisive victories.

Salata averaged 17.8 yards in eight carries against Niles and scored on a 68 yard dash. Teammate ray Castillo scored twice and passed to end Dave Umari for another as Waukegan captured a Suburban League triumph over Niles, 34-19.

McDade, a key performer in Urbana's four wins to date, enjoyed a big afternoon against Mattoon with a 16.6 average in 15 attempts. Urbana amassed 425 yards rushing in rolling over its Big 12 opponents 40-0.

Sanders, speedy Benton halfback, put on an all around exhibition of passing, kicking and running to smash Eldorado's win string, 36-6. He carried the ball 14 times and totaled 144 yards.

Other standout individual performances:

Halfback Jim Brown tallied four times to gear Mendota's powerful attack against Geneseo. The Mendota club was held down for three quarters but exploded for five touchdowns in the final period to notch a 41-7 victory, its fourth straight this season.

Halfback Les Frith of Dwight, on his way to downstate individual scoring honors, added seven points against Normal and boosted his season total to 68. Frith's 65 yard kickoff return was Dwight's only counter and Morris took a 20-7 verdict.

An alert Elgin end, Doug McKinney, gathered a fumble and ran 50 yards for the game's only marker. The 7-0 conquest of East Rockford kept Elgin in the thick of the big Eight flag race.

Halfback Dick Snowden of Industry clicked off 90 yards with the opening kickoff for a touchdown. But on the following kickoff, Ray Pensing of Bushnell rolled 90 yards for a score. After that exchange, Bushnell went on to a 31-21 win.

Jim Bretag shone for Ottawa against Dixon by scoring twice, tossing a pass for another touchdown and totaling 103 yards in 11 carries. Ottawa won, 32-13.

• FAN • BREEZES

BY BILL MERRIS

"I'm not disappointed with the way our boys looked," were the words of coach Al Miller after the Blueboys had dropped a hard fought 12-0 battle to Principia Saturday. The Illinois College mentor, along with most of its spectators, agreed it was a break on a pass interference penalty that changed the game.

The play he was referring to happened in the third period. With the ball on the IC 40 yard line, quarterback Bob Winstead fired a long pass to end Jim Frame deep in Principia territory. A pass interference penalty was called at that point as two of Principia backs interfered with the Blueboy end as he was trying to grab the pigskin. This looked like the break needed to send the visitors on their way, but another penalty had been called in the line—one against the Blueboys—and it nullified the long gain.

To make matters worse, the same penalty—a pass interference infraction of the rules—was called against an IC end on the very next play placing the ball on the Illinois College one foot line. They went over and that was the ball game. After looking the situation over we can see what coach Al means when he says it was the breaks of the game that was the difference between having a 2-0 record and a 1-1 mark.

However the first two games are over and the Blueboys are looking forward to the game this Saturday against William Penn. This will be the 125th Anniversary Homecoming event at the Hilltop and everything is pointing toward the greatest "get together ever."

Coach Miller thinks his boys have a good chance against the team from Pella, Iowa, but he will spend this week drilling on passing and pass defense. The Principia quarterback was a good passer and he hit his receivers very well. If a William Penn scout was in the stands you could expect the same sort of offense from this Saturday's foes.

Not only will IC work on pass defense, they will also try a little more passing of their own. Coach Al was disappointed with the passing attack shown in the first two games. He isn't worried about his passer as much as he is about his receivers. "They just don't get out," were the words of the athletic boss.

One thing is for sure—this will be the first year in a long time the Blueboys have sent a squad into the homecoming game without an injury. Don Hazelrigg, who injured his arm Saturday, will be ready to go this weekend and the IC eleven will be at full strength. We doubt if many teams in the state can boast this record.

Giardello-Olson Title Fight December 15

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Middleweight champion Carl Bobo Olson will risk his title for the third time since he won it in a fight with Britain's Randy Turpin by taking on the top-ranked contender Joey Giardello of Philadelphia in 15 rounds here Dec. 15.

Turpin was European champion and Olson the American titleholder when they met.

The agreement announced Monday came as a surprise. Olson, who has been in light training the past two weeks, had indicated strongly he planned no further title action this year for income tax reasons.

Giardello was operated upon last Wednesday for removal of torn cartilage from a left knee injured in a car crash. He now is in St. Agnes hospital at Philadelphia but his surgeons said Giardello should be able to start roadwork in a month.

The fight, to be televised nationally over the CBS network, will be staged at San Francisco's huge Cow Palace, where Olson defeated Rocky Castellani Ag. 22. Previously Olson defended the title against Dick Gavilan.

Benny Ford, San Francisco promoter, is staging the Dec. 15 bout jointly with James D. Norris, president of the International Boxing Club.

Bobby Dodd May Retire

ATLANTA (AP)—Bobby Dodd said Monday he is considering retiring as head football coach at Georgia Tech, probably at the end of this season or next.

Commenting on a column by Ed Danforth, sports editor of the Atlanta Journal, Dodd said:

"Yes, I have been considering retiring for some time. It might be this year or it might be next—certainly, though, sometime within the next four years. I'll like to step out whenever the opportune time comes. Of course, I hope I will be able to continue by duties as athletic director."

Facing tough battles in late linings doesn't scare Jim Hughes, Brooklyn Dodger relief ace. He served with the 1st Marines during World War II and was decorated for bravery.

Future Of A's May Be Determined Today

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP)—In what could be a history-making meeting in baseball, American League club owners and representatives will huddle in Chicago Tuesday to try to solve the plight of the debt-ridden Philadelphia Athletics.

The Associated Press learned Monday that there appears to be a strong trend among the owners favoring sale of the A's franchise to Arnold Johnson, Chicago business executive, who is all set to move it to Kansas City.

Johnson, in Washington, D. C. Monday for a merchandising meeting, said he had been informed this weekend by his engineers that they still have time to rebuild the Kansas City stadium to accommodate 35,000 fans before the baseball season opens next April. Johnson previously had said if there were not enough time to complete double-decking the stadium he would withdraw his offer for the A's.

"I am returning to Chicago for the meeting Tuesday and I think the situation looks favorable," Johnson said. "A lot of people are interested but I'm the only one who has put up the money."

Johnson heads a syndicate which owns Yankee Stadium, but he explained his position does not violate the baseball rule prohibiting one man from having a financial connection with more than one club.

"All I own is the real estate," he said. "I don't have any connection with the baseball team."

The trend toward Johnson is much more pronounced now than it was two weeks ago in a New York meeting when Roy Mack was given 14 days to raise $750,000 to buy control of the Athletics.

However, a new offer of $2,856,000 was made Monday by two Washington, D.C., men, Leo De Orsey, prominent tax attorney, and Joe Tucci, retired plumbing contractor and breeder of race horses.

They want to buy the Athletics and keep the franchise in Philadelphia.

"We've made a definite offer in writing and they (club owners) can take it or leave it," said De Orsey.

The offer will be presented Tuesday by Calvin Griffith, executive director of the Washington Senators. De Orsey said Roy Mack would be retained in an executive capacity if the offer is accepted and that efforts would be made to land Lefty O'Doul or Tommy Henrich as manager.

Roy has bitterly opposed the wishes of his brother, Earle, and father, Connie, to sell to Johnson. He seems determined to keep the A's in Philadelphia, where the pioneering baseball family has operated for 54 years.

"The only bonafide offer we have received thus far for the Athletics has been by Johnson," Will Harridge, American league president, said Monday. "We have heard nothing from either Roy Mack or Tommy Richardson. And so far we have heard nothing directly from De Orsey and Tucci."

Millionaire building contractor John McShain said in Philadelphia that he had lost interest in backing Roy financially. McShain was believed to be Roy's last hope in raising the $750,000 necessary to retain control of the club.

Richardson is president of the Eastern League and one of the Athletics' directors. He maintains that he has $3,375,000 in cash to match the offer of Johnson and expects to be at the Chicago meeting to ask for the right to buy the franchise.

"If they (the owners) give me the package, I can go out and sell it," said Richardson.

Duke Coaches High On Army

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

NEW YORK (AP)—By means of a useful gadget invented by Alexander Graham Bell, New York football writers Monday learned Duke football coaches consider Army the best offensive team they'll meet this season, and Penn State is counting on speed to gain revenge against West Virginia Saturday.

These were the highlights of a pair of telephone interviews conducted at the weekly meeting at the Metropolitan Football Writers Assn.

Coach Billy Murray of Duke, gratified by his team's success in tying Purdue, said he considers Army the best offensive unit the Blue Devils will face.

Murray explained Duke had set up a special defense to stop the passing of Lenny Dawson in last Saturday's game against Purdue, "but we couldn't stop Bill Murakowski."

Duke's defense consisted of seven men deployed on the side toward which Dawson ran before passing—four in the short position and three deep.

"We found he usually threw to the side toward which he ran, so we put seven men over there between midfield and the sideline," Murray explained. "That made him delay to look for a receiver and gave the linemen a chance to rush him."

In rebuttal, Army's Doc Blanchard pointed out South Carolina, a split-T team like Duke, had been successful against Army with the option play. Since then, the return of end Don Holleder and the shifting of several other players to new positions had given Army better balance.

Floyd Patterson Gains Unanimous 8-Round Decision

NEW YORK (AP)—Floyd Patterson of Brooklyn posed another test in his quest for the light heavyweight title by gaining a unanimous decision over Esau Ferdinand of San Francisco in the 8-round feature at St. Nicholas Arena Monday night.

Referee Ray Miller gave Patterson seven rounds and called one even. Judges Joe Eppy and Americo Schiavone score the bout 7-1 in favor of Patterson. The AP score card agreed with the judges.

Patterson weighed 169½, Ferdinand 166½.

In spite of the one sided scoring in Patterson's favor it was Ferdinand who threw the best punch of the fight. The Californian caught Patterson with a right to the jaw in the early stages of the eighth round and sent the 1952 Olympic champion to the ropes.

Ferdinand displayed a crouching style throughout the fight which appeared to dismay the usually effective Patterson. In the early rounds Patterson missed a considerable number of punches and gained the rounds strictly on effect.

The Brooklynite found his opponent's style in the fourth round when he began to concentrate on fighting Ferdinand from in close. In this round he opened a cut under Ferdinand's left eye which streamed blood for the rest of the bout.

By the sixth Ferdinand appeared to be fighting a lost cause as he found it difficult to cope with Patterson's sharper punching and superior speed.

College Team, Lakers Play October 20th

CHICAGO (AP)—An 11-player collegiate squad which will meet the professional champion Minneapolis Lakers in the 15th annual All-Star basketball game Oct. 20, was announced Monday.

The game will be at Chicago Stadium and is sponsored by the Chicago American. Coaching the graduated collegians are Ray Meyer of DePaul and George Ireland of Loyola of Chicago.

The squad: Bob Pettit, Louisiana State; Bevo Francis, Rio Grande; Frank Ramsey, Kentucky; Frank Selvy, Furman; Johnny Kerr, Illinois.

Eugene Shue, Maryland, Dick Rosenthal, Notre Dame; Cliff Hagan, Kentucky; Bob Leonard, Indiana; Togo Palazzi, Holy Cross and Tom Marshall, Western Kentucky.

Bobby Dykes Whips Favored Ted Olla

By JACK HAND

BROOKLYN (AP)—Lanky Bobby Dykes of Miami, Fla., kept favored Ted Olla at long range with his tantalizing left Monday night to win a unanimous decision over his body-punching foe from Milwaukee in a 10-round bout at Eastern Parkway Arena.

Olla weighed 161, Dykes 159½ pounds.

A small crowd of 1,050 saw Dykes step away to a wide early lead with his talented left, stabbing repeatedly into Olla's face. Blood dripped from Olla's nose after the fourth round.

Twice Referee Mark Conn warned Olla, the 2-1 favorite from Milwaukee for low blows. Dykes, the transplanted Texan who now lives in Miami, was cautioned for pushing Olla in the seventh. Time after time, Bobby used the ring tricks learned in 114 previous fights to spin Olla and smother his body fire.

In the 10th round, a long right by Olla sent Dykes wobbling back off balance but he was unable to follow through his advantage against the dead tired Southern lad.

Frosh-Sophs Lose 14-0 To Saukees

Coach Bob Blazier's Jacksonville Freshman-Sophomore team fell to the visiting Pittsfield JV's by the score of 14-0 last night on the J. H. S. field.

The local underclassmen looked good at times as they marched down the field on two occasions only to fail to push the ball over.

Quarterback Belinson kept the ball on a quarterback sneak and raced 40 yards to score only to have the play called back on a clipping penalty.

Another time, early in the game, the Crimsonso pushed to the Saukees seven yard line but were stopped by a stubborn Pittsfield forward wall.

A long winded fellow was Clarence "Ace" Parker who returned a punt 105 yards for Duke against the University of North Carolina in 1936.

XXV
AGNES ARGYLE'S eyes were cloudy with a review of the past, with a search for some point at which to begin. They brightened at last with decision. "You've seen the 'Carlson Conscience,' the framed relic. It wasn't in the glass case when I was a child. Not when Father was alive. He believed in that creed, inscribed now on the case, and he practiced it. He was a tyrant whose word was irrevocable law. And the slightest breach brought punishment."

Agnes licked her thin dry lips as if tasting the bitterness. Her strong hands clenched and unclenched, yet the monotone of her voice did not change, as her words provided a commentary on her mental pictures of the past.

"We had it well drummed into us that the only law was the Carlson word. Everyone has something, some power they feel they must answer to. With us it was the Carlson law, represented by my father at this time. Nothing higher, and no appeal."

"I started running away from home in my very early teens. Not with any hope of escape, but with desperation. I was caught and brought back. Father whipped me. I used to pray that he would die. Finally he did, and I thought things would be better. They were, in a way. Mother—Mrs. Oswald—never actually used the whip on us. She had it framed. We had been taught so well and the threat was enough. Most of the time. But when I was 17 I ran away again. I had planned well and I had help. Toby, my husband. We were married and I was pregnant by the time we were found. Mrs. Oswald washed her hands of me. But she told me I'd never break away completely, that I'd always remember my early 'training.' I remembered."

"And then our little girl was born. Times were hard for us and Toby was sick. It wasn't his fault, it wasn't mine." She looked up at Jim then. "We came to terms with Mrs. Oswald, turned our baby over to her."

"Why?" Jim demanded.

"Many reasons," Agnes said. "They seemed to be good reasons then. I don't know. I think perhaps I would do the same thing under the same circumstances. Yet you're right. It isn't easy for a woman to give up her first child. But my brother Hilton had married by then, married with Mrs. Oswald's blessing. The baby, Angelica, was to be brought up as their own. She was to have all the benefits of the Carlson money. I thought my brother would be kind, thought he had suffered enough. And Toby needed an operation so desperately. Mrs. Oswald was right on hand with the money—provided. The alternative? Nothing. Nothing. Maybe she didn't mean it. Maybe she would have helped. I don't think so. And Angelica would have everything I realized Toby and I were never going to be able to give. I—I made the deal."

"I thought I was doing right at the time, and for a while, for almost 10 years, everything seemed to be working out. I thought I had done right, that my love for Toby and, yes, my actual fear of the Carlsons, had led me into doing the right thing. But after that 10 years, Mrs. Hilton had a son. That's Peter. Before, Angelica had been brought up as a true child, made over, maybe spoiled. Peter's birth made a difference."

The simple statement brought up a vivid picture of heartbreak.

When did Angelica find out you were her mother?

Tears started running unheeded and unchecked down Sheriff Agnes' face. "She never knew. Somehow I can't bear that. I thought I had all my emotions killed, every feeling so deeply buried I'd never let things touch me, not to show. I was even able to do my official duties without it—showing."

"Do you know who poisoned her?"

"She says I did. I don't know. Maybe I did at that. Last night I brought her up a cup of chocolate, last thing. She likes it sweet. I put extra sugar in it from the bowl in the kitchen. She says that's where the arsenic came from."

"How's Mrs. Oswald?" Mrs. Gelstrap asked.

"She'll live," Jim said curtly. "But it's time now for some facts."

"What do you mean?" Mrs. Kit demanded.

"I think you know what I mean. I want the truth about the relationship between you and Mrs. Gelstrap."

"All right," Kit said defiantly. "It's nothing to be ashamed of. We're sisters."

"Stepsisters," Mrs. Gelstrap corrected wheezily. "And we're living proof that stepsisters do get along. Kit was always the pretty one."

"But you have the brains, Sue," Kit said.

Mrs. Gelstrap accepted that as the equal truth to the fact that Mrs. Kit had the beauty. "I got fat in my teens," she went on. "Glands or something. But Kit and I always got along, we never fought like members of some families. We made plans. We decided on what we wanted in life. We made plans to get it."

Kinney Shoe Company 60th Year Observed

The Kinney Shoe Store at 49 S. Side Square is celebrating the 60th Anniversary of the G. R. Kinney Co., Inc.

The store is managed by H. R. Yeck and is one of 340 in the Kinney organization located in 39 states from coast to coast.

It was in 1894 that Mr. G. R. Kinney opened his first store. The pace was gradual at the start, but with sound merchandising principles and a reputation for good foot-wear values, the business grew and prospered.

Today the Company is one of the largest chains of family shoe stores in America, offering a complete range of popular priced footwear for men, women, and children. Most famous of their trade names is "Educator Shoes," a hallmark of quality and correct fitting.

In addition to the retail stores, there are four Kinney factories manufacturing thousands of pairs of shoes daily. These are responsible to a large extent for Kinney's low "factory to wearer" prices.

The Company employs 3600 men and women and does an annual retail volume exceeding 42 million dollars.

State's Attorney Addresses Woman's Club

Preceding the serving of the luncheon the invocation was given by Mrs. Fletcher Blackburn. The regular meeting was opened by the president and Mrs. Loren Moody led the group in the pledge to the flag. The minutes of the May meeting, August and October board meetings were read by the recording secretary, Mrs. John Marshall. The music chairman, Miss Charlotte Sieber then introduced Mrs. E. J. Flynn and her son, Greg. Mrs. Flynn is an accomplished dramatic soprano and Greg, a gifted pianist with distinction achieved in his own right. He accompanied his mother at the piano for three selections, "The Call of Love," "In the Garden" and "Crisp Birt Bin" and for an encore, "Kentucky Belle."

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Hart as a personality known to most all present. Mr. Hall prefaced his talk with the definition of a juvenile in Morgan county and also of the many interpretations of the term, delinquency. He scanned the local situation from the period young boys are first noticed keeping too late hours for reasons other than necessary, to the warning period, extended as far as possible to allow youths to make every effort possible to rehabilitate, then into county court and, if adjustment is not made and further crime is committed, hence to circuit court.

Interesting comments by Attorney Hall included that never had he encountered a case in Morgan county involving a young girl under the terminology of a juvenile delinquent and that also youths living on farms in rural communities had never been charged for any crime under his jurisdiction. Another interesting point made by Attorney Hall was that he could not blame what cases were involved exclusively for economic reasons. From the speaker's viewpoint broken homes and other poor family environment were the main cause for young boys to become delinquent or formed the basis for later tendencies toward this situation.

The speaker emphasized well the seriousness with which authorities look upon crime engaged in by youth in their jurisdiction within the county. He cited cases of recent consideration which were familiar to his audience because of recent press notices. He continued that he felt the time honored practice of setting examples within the home was first, last and always, a must to insure proper living and understanding of conduct for our youth. He concluded that there are no known statistics as to the percentage or amount of juvenile delinquency or crime in Morgan county but that much can be done by individuals and organizations in this matter, through initiative on their own or planned programs. Mr. Hall's address was of great interest to everyone present and undoubtedly will remain one of the outstanding programs of the club season.

Mrs. Davis, after expressing appreciation for the fine talk, complimented the hostesses for the lovely floral arrangements on the dining tables and presented the hostesses responsible for the decorations. They were Mrs. Fay Daniel, Mrs. Edmund Slaughter, Mrs. Alvin Middendorf, Mrs. George Thayer, Mrs. Howard Reynolds, Mrs. S. B. Kuntze, Mrs. Mary Burke Lowery, Mrs. Andra Lavenood, Mrs. Dallas Haden, Mrs. Don Randall, Mrs. Adelaide Johnson, Mrs. Maude Fanning.

The new members, those joining since the last regular club meeting, were then introduced and asked to stand. Mrs. Davis presented the club mother, Mrs. Leach, who was present as well as Mrs. T. M. Walsh. Clever little cowboy boots were passed among the members for donations for shoes for the young boys living at Trail Rangers cottage and received enthusiastic response. Mrs. John Murray is the Trail Rangers chairman and her last project was the taking of 60 dozen cookies to the Cottage some weeks back furnished by members of the Jacksonville Woman's club.

Among the many announcements made were: an all day meeting at Marquette Park with all clubwomen within the Federation eligible on Oct. 29; Morgan county federation meeting Oct. 27 at Youth Center; Junior Woman's club style show Oct. 19 at JHS, benefit for Girl Scout Cabin and the next meeting of the Woman's club on Nov. 13 at 2:30 at the hotel.

Mrs. T. Ray Baker announced that Deaconess Day tea 2 p.m. Monday was open to all Aid members and friends and the CWF of Christian church bazaar and food sale was Nov. 6 at the Youth Center.

Mrs. Baker made an excellent appeal for blood donors. Telling members that even though circumstances denied their being able to give to take a registration card which were passed along the tables, and get a friend or relative to sign up. Morgan county is in danger of losing its approved standing unless it meets the quota in October. She told of the added expense to any patient needing blood in Morgan county should the county be taken from the Red Cross Bloodmobile list.

Other announcements included Open House at the Jacksonville State Hospital; National Nurse Week, Oct. 11 through 16; the club cooperating with Altruism in furnishing sick room equipment for loan; volunteer service by club members for the Community Chest Drive. Mrs. C. L. Rice thanked the members and club for their kindnesses to her while a patient at the Passavant hospital.

Find Skeleton Of Quincy Man Near Hannibal

PITTSFIELD — The skeleton of James Cochran, Quincy, was found by two turtle hunters near Hannibal Sunday morning.

Sheriff Ray Lyman had a call Sunday morning from Charles Kelly of the East Hannibal vicinity of Pike county, stating that two men had told him that they had been turtle hunting along the sloughs and that they had found a motor bicycle hidden in the tall weeds.

Searching further they found the skeleton of a man sitting against a nearby tree in the underbrush.

Sheriff Lyman, accompanied by Coroner Walter Plattner, went to the scene, and investigation disclosed that the remains were those of James Cochran of Quincy.

Cochran had left his home at 1022 South Seventh street in Quincy on August 9 on his motor bike and had not been seen or heard from since. He had been under doctor's care for serious heart ailments prior to his disappearance.

He is survived by his wife, He was born in Warsaw, Ill., and his parents were Joshua and Harriet Cochran. The remains were taken to the Locke Funeral home in Barry and later transferred to Quincy. No inquest was held.

Pittsfield Voters Approve Water Revenue Bonds

PITTSFIELD — In what was characterized as a very tight vote the residents of Pittsfield Monday approved action of the city council authorizing the issuance of $225,000 of water revenue bonds. The tally Monday was Yes, 645; No, 210.

The election was held as the result of a petition filed Aug. 25 in the office of the city clerk. It demanded that a referendum be held on the proposition.

Monday's vote brought an end to four suits that have been filed by contractors who claim that the city owes them a total of $134,500 for work done in an attempt to alleviate the water shortage in Pittsfield.
